National Chung Hsing University TOCFL Subsidy Program for International Degree Students

I. Purpose

This program aims to encourage international degree students at National Chung Hsing University (hereinafter referred to as “the University”) to take and pass the Test of Chinese as a Foreign Language (TOCFL) administered by the Steering Committee for the Test of Proficiency–Huayu (SC-TOP), and to obtain certification at Level A2 or higher to enhance their Chinese proficiency for living and working in Taiwan.

II. Source of Funds

The subsidy is funded by the Ministry of Education under the Program of Career Counseling and Retention in Taiwan for International Students and/or the Higher Education SPROUT Project - Internationalization Initiative.

III. Eligibility

Applicants must be international degree students who are currently enrolled at the University at the time of application.

IV. Application Period and Procedure

1. Applications are accepted twice a year, in May and November. Students shall submit the required documents within the timeframe announced on the Office of International Affairs (OIA) website.
2. Required documents:
  - (1) Application form;
  - (2) Proof of current enrollment;
  - (3) Copy of Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) and postal bankbook cover (account name and number must be clearly shown);
  - (4) Receipt for TOCFL test registration fee;
  - (5) Original and photocopy of the TOCFL score report (the original will be returned after verification).

V. Subsidy Details and Quota

1. Students who achieve Level A2 or above on the TOCFL Listening and Reading test will receive a subsidy of NT$2,000, while those who achieve Level A2 or above on the TOCFL Speaking or Writing test will receive a subsidy of NT$1,400. However, students who submitted a Chinese proficiency certificate as proof of language ability for university admission are eligible for the subsidy only if they obtain a higher proficiency level than that used for admission.

2. The same test at the same level may be subsidized only once, and each student may receive the subsidy up to two times in total.
3. The total number of subsidies available each year will be determined according to the annual budget and announced accordingly. If the number of applicants exceeds the available quota, subsidies will be prioritized in the following order:
  - (1) Students who have participated in OIA-organized Chinese language courses;
  - (2) Applicants graduating in the current semester;
  - (3) The order in which complete applications are received.
